

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF ALASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

V.

Case No. 3:22-cr-00081-SLG-KFR

ROBERT JOSEPH CAMPBELL,

Defendant.

FINAL REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION UPON A PLEA OF GUILTY

Upon Defendant's request to enter a guilty plea, pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, to Count One of the Indictment, charging a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1), Felon in Possession of a Firearm, [Doc. 2], the District Court referred this matter to the Magistrate Judge, with the written and verbal consents of Defendant, counsel for Defendant, and counsel for the United States.

Thereafter, the matter came before this Court for a hearing on Defendant's guilty plea, in full compliance with Rule 11, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, in open court and on the record.

In consideration of that hearing and the colloquy made by Defendant under oath, on the record, in the presence of counsel, and the remarks of the Assistant United States Attorney,

A. I make the following FINDINGS – that Defendant understands:

- That any false statements made by Defendant under oath may later be used against him in a prosecution for perjury;
- The right to persist in a plea of not-guilty;
- The consequences of not being a United States citizen;
- The nature of the charges against Defendant;

1 ☒ The loss of certain federal benefits;

2 ☒ The maximum possible sentence, including imprisonment, fine,

3 supervised release, and any applicable mandatory minimum sentence;

4 ☒ The Court's authority to order restitution;

5 ☒ The mandatory special assessment;

6 ☒ Any applicable forfeiture;

7 ☒ The right to a speedy and public trial by jury;

8 ☒ The right to be represented by counsel and, if necessary, to have the

9 court appoint counsel at trial, and at every other stage of the 10 proceedings;

11 ☒ The right to: confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, to remain

12 silent, to testify and present evidence, and to compel the attendance of

13 witnesses;

14 ☒ That a plea of guilty operates as a waiver of trial rights;

15 ☒ That Defendant knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily waives all right

16 to appeal or collaterally attack (except on the grounds of ineffective

17 assistance of counsel and the voluntariness of his plea); and

18 ☒ That in determining a sentence, the court's obligation to calculate the

19 applicable sentencing guideline range pursuant to the Sentencing

20 Guidelines promulgated by the United States Sentencing Commission

21 and to consider that range, as well as departures under the Sentencing

22 Guidelines, and variances under 18 U.S.C. §3553(a).

23 B. I further FIND:

- 24 1. Defendant is competent to enter an informed plea;
- 25 2. Defendant is aware of his rights and has had the advice of legal counsel;
- 26 3. That the plea of guilty by Defendant has been knowingly and voluntarily
- 27 made and is not the result of force, threats, or coercion;
- 28 4. There is no agreement between the parties in this open plea; and

1 5. That there is a factual basis for Defendant's plea.

2 C. I RECOMMEND:

3 That the District Court accept Defendant's plea of guilty to Count One of
4 the Indictment, a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1), Felon in Possession
5 of a Firearm.
6 That the District Court accept Defendant's admission to the Criminal
7 Forfeiture Allegation.¹

8 D. IT IS ORDERED:

9 That a Presentence Report be prepared by the U.S. Probation Office.

10 1. Any objection(s) to the presentence report shall be filed no later than 11 fourteen (14) days after receiving the presentence report (Fed. R. Crim.
12 P. 32(f)(1));
13 2. Any sentencing memorandum shall be filed no later than seven (7)
14 business days prior to sentencing (D.Ak. L.Cr.R. 32.1(d)).

15 The Sentencing hearing will be before the United States District Judge. The 16 court excludes time from February 7, 2023, until the time of sentencing pursuant to 17 18 U.S.C. §3161(h)(1)(G) on the grounds that the District Judge will be considering 18 the proposed plea agreement.

 of sentence.
